Interstate Removal Pricing

Distance-Based Charges

Interstate removals operate on transparent distance-based pricing: - Standard Rate: $2.90 per kilometre (most common) - Alternative Rates: $2.60–$3.15 depending on service conditions and truck configuration

Cost Calculation Example

For a typical Adelaide to Melbourne move: - Uplift distance (collection phase): ~100 km × $2.90 = $290 - Destination distance (delivery phase): ~600 km × $2.90 = $1,740 - Combined distance cost: ~$2,030 (before additional charges)

Additional Cost Components

Beyond distance-based charges, expect: - Fuel surcharge (Adelaide-Melbourne routes): $40-$50 - Access charges for both uplift and delivery (loading/unloading at each end) - Interstate transit insurance: 3% of declared shipment value - Packing materials (if you choose professional packing for fragile items)

Money-Saving Tips

Plan ahead: Fixed rates apply when you book in advance. Last-minute moves sometimes incur premium charges.

Declutter first: Fewer items means lower costs. Sell, donate, or discard items you won't need in Melbourne.

Flexible timing: Mid-week moves often cost less than weekend removals.

Combine with storage: If your new Melbourne home isn't ready, short-term storage bridges the gap at predictable costs.
